

Leo Sayer, Agents Of The Heart restless as the ocean -- stumbling in the dark blinded by emotion -- wishing on a star yeah I was yours

when I'm beside you I see the child in you tonight
I see a wild youth inside of you burning so bright
let my love create the sparks split the ocean wide apart agents of the heart be kind tonight yeah I was yours from the start and no stranger could tear us apart agents of the heart please be kind
when I'm beside you I see the child
in you tonight
let the lightning break the dark let your love create the sparks agents of the heart be kind tonight
