

Leon Bridges, Why Don't You Touch Me: Part 1

i've been feeling way too undesired before the flame went out all around us was all on fire i can feel the distance go for miles but cold is all you are and it's causing chills what's with all this you won't even talk about it

Can you be honest?
Is you just running out of thrills?
'Cause every time you put me second Girl, make me feel wanted Don't leave me out here unfulfilled
'Cause we're slowly getting disconnected
