Leona Lewis, Essence of Me

Let me take these clothes off, throw them in the fire Blowing hair in the wind, let spirit guide me No limitations, it's a brand new day It's a new horizon, this is who I am This is what I want

I'm breaking free
I'm taking the leap
These borders are deep
But I'm feeling, I'm feeling the essence of me
These mountains are steep
But there's no stopping me
I'm feeling, I'm feeling the essence of me
The essence of me, the essence of me
The essence of me, the essence

I've been everything you wanted me to be Let you chip away at my self-esteem Oh, you spoke so loud I couldn't hear myself And all your runaway judgments no longer pin me down You can't pin me down, they can't pin me down

I'm breaking free
I'm taking the leap
These borders are deep
But I'm feeling, I'm feeling the essence of me
These mountains are steep
But there's no stopping me
I'm feeling, I'm feeling the essence of me
The essence of me, the essence of me
The essence of me, the essence

I'm standing in the flames
Still gotta overcome
Every little victory
Take 'em one by me
I'm waking up stronger
Putting all my love 'round one
Now it's on, bring it on, bring it on

I'm breaking free
I'm taking the leap
These borders are deep
But I'm feeling, I'm feeling the essence of me
These mountains are steep
But there's no stopping me
I'm feeling, I'm feeling the essence of me
The essence of me, the essence of me
The essence of me, the essence

Got nothing to fear but my own fears
