

Leona Lewis, Lovebird

I will lay down next to you stay in bed all afternoon we were birds of a feather we were always together And I never will forget All the little things you said and that beautiful summer you used to call me your love bird but the time went on, the wind has blown, and I have grown and I've started a feeling That my wings have been broken

And I can't believe
That I would ever want to be set free
But I just can't stay

So your lovebird's flyin' away
Your lovebird's flyin' away
Cause my hearts been stuck in a cage
Gotta sing my song, so pretty
Dum, dum, diddy
And I'll miss you everyday
But there's nothing left to say
gotta sing my song, so pretty
Dum, dum, diddy

I want the world at my feet
Even if it's bittersweet Wanna stand on my own and Put my heart in my own hands
Cause I begun to see that you and me are different breeds
So I gotta be leaving Gotta get back to breathing
And I can't believe
That I would ever want to be set free
But I just can't stay

So your lovebird's flyin' away
Your lovebird's flyin' away
Cause my hearts been stuck in a cage
Gotta sing my song, so pretty
Dum, dum, diddy
And I'll miss you everyday
Gotta sing my song, so pretty
Dum, dum, diddy

And you'll always be
A part of me
You made me who I am
But I gotta say
I'm not afraid to test my wing span Cause they say if you love something let it go let it go let it go Open up the gate cause your lovebird's flying away... your lovebird's flying away
Cause my hearts been stuck in a cage
Gotta sing my song, so pretty
Dum, dum, diddy
And I'll miss you everyday
Gotta sing my song, so pretty
dum, dum, diddy
