

Leonard Cohen, I've Got a Little Secret

I've Got a Little Secret,
Please don't tell anyone
I said: I've Got a Little Secret,
You got to promise not to tell
I've been in heaven
But I rather be in hell

I like hold you, baby
But my arms are cold and ____
I like hold you, baby
I was listening to your story
But I think I just fell asleep

I've Got a Little Secret,
Please don't tell anyone
I said: I've Got a Little Secret,
You got to promise not to tell
I've been in heaven
But I rather be in hell
