

Leslie Carter, Too Much Too Soon

Through my window I see the rain I wonder what you're feeling could it be the same I really wish that I could hold you tight and whisper to you that will make it all right cause I'm head over heels boy catch me I'm falling in love with you voices keep saying to take it slow cause baby I know that too much too soon can turn you around bring you up bring you down but too much is too soon lets take it real slow keep our feet on the ground this time (3x) boy you never have to wonder why my heart belongs to you I have nothing to hide I love you more then I could ever show but baby heart to heart I just want you to know that I'm head over heels for you catch me I'm falling in love with you voices keep saying to take it slow cause baby I know too much too soon can turn you around bring you up bring you down but too much is too soon lets take it real slow keep our feet on the ground this time (3x) cause I'm head over heels boy catch me I'm falling in love with you voices keep saying to take it slow cause baby I know too much too soon can turn you around bring you up bring you down baby too much its too soon lets take it real slow keep our feet on the ground too much too soon can turn you around bring you up bring you down baby too much its too soon lets take it real slow keep our feet on the ground this time (3x)
