

Lethal Bizzle, Police On My Back

(Sirens)

Ah,

Ah,

Yeah, Bizzle,

True Stories Yo Check Me Out Yo Oi,
I used to be a criminal, top car dealer,
Bare competition but my cars were realer
But quite frank my cars were professional,
Reloads exceptional.

Serial change, log book, keys

All you need to worry about was the fees

Well lets see you can start from the back

Depending what car you can pay 20 G's

if you need, Brand new X5 with keys,

If ya' need Mercedes Benz with TV's

Look at these Golf, Astras, TT's anything you want, yeah we can get these.

Best sellers were the Puntos

don't be laughing when I say Puntos

Supplied the whole of Walthamstow with puntos

An' they were cheap and cute an' everyone could afford it.

Like, I had to pack that all in obviously 'coz of the music but like,

One time i got chased by helicopters, police, police dogs.

I got away but listen to what happened though look, look

So i'm in my Punto yer, an I see the boydem in the rear view

And i'm thinking St what am I gonna' do?

This car's slow it's only 1.2

So I jumped out while still moving, somewhere random in Chingford

Back then i was a little Linford, But not ugly as Linford.

So anyway an' im running heart is pumping fast

(Budum) (Budum) (Budum) (Buddum)

It's gettin' tight they're gunna' catch my A*se

(Budum) (Budum) (Budum)

Then i saw that garden wall, swear, no lies, about 20 foot tall.

So i jumped over, thought all was cool, that's when I heard the helicopter.

(Wings) AH ST.

(Chorus: I'm Running, Police On My Back)

So I remember sitting in this garden right, an' the helicopter is at the other side of the road. So I'm thinking like right, if i don't make a move now I'm gunna' get caught.

So I thought nar you know what I gotta' make a move so I remember making a move like.

Trying to be quiet, Jumping over the fences, make sure I turn off my phone.

Then I saw this shed, so I start runnin' towards this shed praying the doors are open.

I got into this shed and i remember thinking to myself

AH ST. What have I done?

AH ST. What have I done?

AH ST. What have I done?

AAHH. What have I done?

(Chorus)

So like four hours later, it's like seven AM in the morning, daylight, people going to work.

I Just... walked home.

Oh yeah, I missed a bit out

One of my mates were in the car.

You know what happened to him, Innit.

(Laugh)

(Chorus)
