

Liam Lynch, Fake David Bowie Song: Eclipse Me

I dreamt of a wizard, with a hot guitar
The loveliest magic man, now he's a star
I've got 3D stereophonic laser love
You're on my TV
I've been stuck in space for such a long time
Sorry mum, I'm 5 years late for teatime
Hydroplaning toward infinity
Just some drag queens and me
You dirty little thing!
Eclipse me
In Cryogenic sleep
Oh lord I'm freezing
Venus is lovely this time of year...
I'm making proteins in my body as I speak
Star lover
