

Lil Uzi Vert, Werewolf (feat. Bring Me The Horizon)

I stare at the moon
Witness me
Woah

Your bad, bad bones in my blood bath
Your bones will
I used to know I'll never give back so fall in line
You live your lonely world
You don't help me anywhere else (Woah)
Your world will soon go down but underground

And this darkness has begun, you'll hate me
I'm going deeper underground, you'll taste it

Ah-ah-ah, ah, ah, ah
Picked up where you left off
I pray on my knees, to my protector
Ah-ah-ah, ah, ah, ah
Get off to the blood that was left on the scene, you was destined
I was lucky with the curse and I can't even doubt (Doubt)
I was lucky with the curse and I can't even doubt (Doubt)
I was lucky with the curse and I can't even doubt (Doubt)
I was lucky with the curse and I can't even doubt (Doubt)

And this darkness has begun, you'll hate me
I'm going deeper underground, you'll taste it
Better off dead in the ground [?] see you around so much
And what the shadows have become, I hate it

I'm still
I stare at the moon

And when this darkness has begun, you'll hate me
I'm going deeper underground, you'll taste it
Better off dead in the ground see you around so much
And what the shadows have become, I hate it

Witness me (Witness me)
