

Lil Wayne, We Alright (Ft. Birdman & Euro)

[Euro:]

I couldn't have done better
I couldn't have done this shit any other way
I made it now, only tryin' convince me to make it another day
Glad I could see another day
I do this shit for my squad
My home, team, my family, fuck what another say
I'm here now, it's all clear now
Somebody grow up, I'm meeting God
Y'all can't see my competition 'til I throw up
I'm tall up, but I keep shit 100
That's from the toes up
Last night it felt like I ran through four clubs
Stood on the couch, and every single one them screaming "hoes does" and prozac
It's different when we show up kicking doughs up
I'm a young stunner, young wayne, I'm young money
I've growned up, like I'm new here
But I'm nuclear, that's a bomb threat motherfucker
Watch til I blow up
I'm good, I'm remind that I'm good
From time to time, I'm fine
I'll be spending time with the greatest of all times all the time
And ever since I'm living life every night like it's 99
I'm way ahead of my time, I think I was only 8 at that time
I wrapped them 5 letters forever
Would someone just tell the bartender to mix my drink
While I mix my thoughts of business and pleasure
I'm clever, long money, all around me
I just hope that I live long enough
Long enough to measure
We should take pictures sipping Crystal, and Gucci sweaters
And I'm still getting better, nigga, what's better?
They say I'd never do it, now I'm looking like nigga, what's never?
And now the run from it, it's when they see us
It's when the money's precious
Plots on the wall of every building that I walk into Phone taps, cut the curious, careful who you talking to Living the star life you never know who you run into
Like baby I can change your life, just leave everything that you've been through, alright?

Long as my niggas right, then we alright
Long as the women right, then we alright
Long as the drinks on ice, then we alright
Long as it's private flights, then we alright
Long as we livin' right, then we alright
Long as it's high life, then we alright
'Cause I love it more than anything
Boys it's money over everything, we've been alright

[Birdman:]

Is money over everything?
We motivated
Flying over everything
We make something out of nothing
What up 5?
Back fuller every president that ever died
Spraying everything that's in the way
We eating over hills, extended clips fifty plates
It's a lifestyle, stunner life every day
A million wines, we can throw this shit a million ways
Younging
If you alright, then we alright
Night life, GTV, poppin every night
Fly rich in a different city, bright lights

Where my niggas rich ganging, living high life
Guns in the basement
Millions in the wall
GTV cases
If it's fucking, then it's fucking off
All the malls, and cigars and the new toys

Long as my niggas right, then we alright
Long as the women right, then we alright
Long as the drinks on ice, then we alright
Long as it's private flights, then we alright
Long as we livin' right, then we alright
Long as it's high life, then we alright
'Cause I love it more than anything
Boys it's money over everything, we've been alright

Do this shit for rezzil
Young money rich gang, you heard me
We're big ears, you just a crocodile

I drank a full cup of his tears
Can't recognize you nigga, like Santa cut off his beard
And Tunechi he gon be alright, as long as he got his pills
I'm higher than my bitch bills
Stop crying 'bout them bitch chill
I'm working on that carter five
I got this bitch in fifth gear
I can't stand these niggas
Ima lie it down or sit still, get tied down
With that fucking steel
At your eyebrow, or your fuckin grill
Catch you while you layed up, straight up, bunny ears
I shoot your fucking fade up
Ratchets don't touch me

If that pussy smell like cat fish, salmon, trout or guppies
I ain't trippin over no hoe
Treat that hoe like a servant
I know that hoe better know
How to deep thoat like a serpent
But loose lips aint ships
But I just let these hoes worship

She think I'm a window of opportunities, close curtain, tunechi

If my niggas right, then we alright
If the women right, then we alright
Them drinks on ice, then we alright
If it's private flights, then we alright
Long as we livin' right, then we alright
Long as it's high life, then we alright
'Cause I love it more than anything
Boys it's money over everything, we've been alright
