

LIL YACHTY, IVE OFFICIALLY LOST ViSiON

I did way too much drugs, I been swirling and spinning
I did way too much drugs, I been swirling and spinning
Keep the fireplace warm, I'm almost home
I'm almost there (I'm almost there)
I've officially lost vision
Ha

I've found my turf
Bad decisions with the chrome in my hand
I been tempted to go clone my seed
I just think there should be more like me
Know you miss the thought of you and me
Keeping up with all the Jones, I can't Summer day but I keep ice on my hands
Head spinning like a modern home ceiling fan
I just balled up my fist, I cannot feel
I think I did one too much many pills
Fuck
I've officially lost vision

Save your tears for when you get old
'Cause niggas out there ain't in the story you wrote
Realize who's friend and then who's foe
'Cause you got everything they want, you better keep that low
Doing all you can tryna keep your hope
But I'll be gone before you wake
Old memories, and they start to fade
You'll always get a prayer from me back home
You'll always get love even when you're dead wrong
These bitches get low, but I can go lower
Vibrations is high, keep niggas on they toes
I'm getting in your head more than you may know
I'm here just breathing

I've officially lost vision
I've been sent to a mental prison
I been forced to make some terribly bad decisions
All these voices in my head, I need an incision
I can see the sky falling, ah, illusion
This lil' tiny sheet of paper could change your life
It's chemically proven, it's chemically, ah

Allegedly blind
