

LILHUDDY, America's Sweetheart

i feel so alone in the crowded places every conversation feels so fake everything i touch always seems to break i get so depressed when i hear your name

i don't realla give a shit if you stay i don't realla give a shit if you go i don't realla give a shit either way either way i feel alone
i don't realla give a shit if you stay
i don't realla give a shit if you go
i don't realla give a shit either way

and here we are
i am the bad guy
and you're America's Sweetheart

i won't even lie if you left me here i wouldn't even cry not one dam tear and i'ma tell you something you don't wanna hear i won't feel good until i disappear

i don't realla give a shit if you go
i don't realla give a shit either way
i don't realla give a shit if you stay
i don't realla give a shit if you go
i don't realla give a shit either way

i don't realla give a shit if you go
i don't realla give a shit if you stay
i don't realla give a shit if you go

and you're America's Sweetheart
