

Lili Haydn, Mama

Written by Lili Haydn

Mam, now I know why you held on Magic held you captive in it's song, captive intit's song Mama, I never understood your plight you waited for the sweetness in his eyes, sweetness in his eyes Mama, tell me how you found yourself outside your compromise
Can you lead me toward a light to keep me from self-sacrifice Mama, sorry if you stayed for me you overlooked injustice for the peace, injustice for the peace Mama, why do we go back for more even when we're curled up on the floor, from blows that we've endured
Mama, tell me how you found yourself outside your compromise
Can you lead me toward a light to keep me from self-sacrifice
Mama, I became what I abhor acting out to even up the score, to even up the score