

Lily Allen, Little Soldier

So come on over
What you waiting for?
No strings attached, no!
You won't be ignored
We could be family
You'll be comfortable
Ever expanding
Fully functional

Why, have to, I, to tell to anyone
You, you always have the room to breathe
We searching for house of fun
We have a good intentions
We only want to find where we've been

So come on over
What you waiting for?
No strings attached, no!
You won't be ignored
We could be family
You'll be comfortable
Ever expanding
Fully functional

Don't worry, it's safe at last
There's nothing to over think
Forget tomorrow, forget the past
Waiting we'll all get to bed
I am only able to get to sleep

So come on over
What you waiting for?
No strings attached, no!
You won't be ignored
We could be family
You'll be comfortable
Ever expanding
Fully functional

No strings attached, no,
You won't be ignored
