

Limboski, I'm so many men

I'm so many men

I'm so many men
Standing in a cue
I'm so many men
Choose the one for you

I'm so many men
Waving at your back
I'm so many men
It's the luck you've got

So you are smiling and soon you'll choose
Maybe tonight
Who will you love dear and who will be used
But there's only one single heart you can lose
But there's only one single heart and one blues
Still you rolling over my heart
rolling over my heart
Brake me loose

I'm so many men
Looking like a gang
I'm so many men
Struggling in a fight

I'm so many men
Gazing at the void
I'm so many men
Wondering what's beyond

I'm so many men
Gloomy and blue
Sent down here for you

I'm so many men
But if you're not here
We all go insane
Desperate and free
