

Linkin Park, My reason

I've never liked the shelter
I'm constantly alone
I'm pointing out my weakness
There's an emptiness at home

I need to find a reason
To live this way
I'm running out of patience
And my life is over

I'm standing here
but I'm on my way
searching to find an answer
I'm standing here
but it's all the same
and I'm running out of patience

(Chorus)
And I will take my reason
from you
And I've gained a reason
from you

But you left me
You left me here
And I'm all alone

Been stripped of my innocence
Take pity on myself
A certain chain of grievance
That puts me in this hell

I need to find a reason
To live this way
I'm running out of patience
And my life is over

I'm standing here
But I'm on my way
Searching to find an answer
I'm standing here
But it's all the same
And I'm running out of patience

(Chorus)
And I will take my treason
from you
And I've gained a reason
from you

But you left me
You left me here
I'm all alone
I'm all alone
I'm all alone
I'm all alone

Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh
Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh

Well I'm searching
To find my reason
To find a reason
To find my reason

Why I need you
And I need you
And I want you

But I need to Get away from you
And I need you
And I want you

But I need to Get away from you
And I need you
And I want you

But I need to Get away from you
And I need you
And I want you

But I need to Get away from you

And I will take my reason
from you
And I needed someone to love me
But you just left me here
And I'm lonely
You know I needed
Someone to love me
But I'm all alone
