

Linkin Park, Take from me

(take away whats never been given to me)

love me

hate me

love me

hate me

(take away whats never been given to me)

one time(tick..tick..tick) one day i when to your house i dont know what i was looking for i was not ready for what was in-store the tub your face the water in you on you life takes form me again fate takes we blame we hate the mistakes we dont own we take use and disown throw away ourselves in the maze spy on the haze

pain like waves in me

this is not the real me

(take away whats never been given to me)

love me

hate me

(take away whats never been given to me)

love me

hate me

(take away whats never been given to me)

free yourself

free yourself
