Lionel Richie, I Love You

Here I finally come to stand My pen and paper in hand To write to you

To tell you what I feel inside To say to you I can't survive Without you

For all the things I've come to see I now beleive there's only you Only you for me

I'm standing here so lost in you That's all my heart and soul can do Is say what's true

I love you I love you

The first time I looked in your eyes It was so clear to my surprise My heart stood still

I'v eheard it time and time again That when you fall you can't pretend True love is real

I know with you I do belong You are my voice my simple song You're all I need

The joy I feel when love is blind You're everything I need to find My search is through

Babe I love you I lvoe you Babe I love you I love you

Cause I know with you I do belong You are my voice my simple song You're all I need

And the joy I feel when love is blind You're everything I need to find My search is through

Babe I love you I love you
