

Liquido, Tired

I'm tired of sleeping my life away
I'm tired of wasting my time just scared of this feeling of hurt
it's awaking.

I'm tired of wishing my fears away
I'm tired of touching your skin
Awaiting the tip of the tip
it's amazing.

Take your bow and whistle
I heard my father sing
The answer lies in front of us so let your work begin it shivers, it quivers

I'm tired of thinking 'bout yesterday I'm tired of reading the news the wavelength that weakens the weak must be dieing.

I'm tired staying awake all night I'm tired that struggle within completely beating me up
it's amazing.

Take my bow and whistle now angered by that lies
the answer lies in front of us
tearing up the tide
it shivers, it quivers

|: my lover discover slow motion devotion imagine that ill wind relation sensation :|

When you got it thrown back slip back and you shiver for the one track other track and my lover for the motion covering throw it back

I'm tired of sleeping my life away
I'm tired of wasting my time
just scared of this feeling of hurt
it's awaking.

I'm tired of wishing my fears away
I'm tired of touching your skin
it's amazing.
