

Lisa Stansfield, One Kiss

What you find behind your eyes
What you're looking for behind your eyes,
Is me
Everything you find inside
Everything you ever want to find,
Is me

I'm crying out for you to hold me
And I'm warming up to show you that I care

One kiss can tell me that you're mine
One kiss can show me there's no other way
One kiss can tell me that you're mine
One kiss can make you my mind

Let me look into your eyes
Let me see it's me behind your eyes,
Me
Let me hold you in my mind
Let me take one look and know it's mine,
For me

I'm crying out for you to hold me
And I'm warming up to show you that I care

One kiss can tell me that you're mine
One kiss can show me there's no other way
One kiss can tell me that you're mine
One kiss can make you my mind

I'm crying out for you to hold me
And I'm warming up to show you that I care

One kiss can tell me that you're mine
One kiss can show me there's no other way
One kiss can tell me that you're mine
One kiss can make you my mind
