

Little Birdy, Alright

I dont mind the sun sometimes, feelin' everything will be alright
It'll be alright
I left my love in San Jose, and I found a place where I can stay
Cos it's all mine
Cos it's all mine

Something's wrong, something's wrong
Baby tell me do you have me caught out?
Would you do that?

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I know you're feeling my bad luck
But that's too bad
Cos i'm oh, alright

And I feel love
And I want love
But I need love
But I want love
It'll be alright

I need something I need strength
I need God to help me get on my way, or is it our way?

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I know you're feeling my bad luck
But thats too bad
Cos i'm oh, alright

And i feel love
And i want love
But i need love
But i want love

And i feel love
And i want love
But i need love
But i want love
It'll be alright

I want to play
Every single day
I want to play
And be a girl...
