

Local H, Hey, Rita

hey, rita
there's a statue with your face
hey, rita
it's in the park, baring your name i'd love to take you there but no one really cares, and who's to blame?

yeah, i've been patient but, patience just another game

...and if you never stay wouldn't matter anyway
it's ok

hey, rita

spread the word around your queen is steppin' down livin' with your mom and dad again the house built, have been sold the cars have all been towed it hasn't been this been bad since who knows when

hey, rita
we wanna know where you have been you don't believe it you wanna know where we were then

wouldn't matter what they say
it's ok

hey, rita
with your face

'cause who's to blame
doesn't matter what they say

hey, rita

...stop
