

Local H, Skid Marks

No - I'll cut you in a minute
You know you should admit it- oh yeah
There's no turning back
I guess that you knew that
My eyes are turning black and my brain is getting fat
I'm staring at some ants that are swimming in shellac
- I won't do this again - No

No - I'll cut you in a minute
You know you should admit it- oh yeah
Here I go again
I should be among friends
I'll let you know when
I start to feel a nerve end
That should be around ten
So just shut up until then
- soaked in glowstick juice
