

Logan Michael, Home

I've traveled so far and I can't go back home
This life that live's the only one that I've known
Time seems to fly, but the days go by slow
The bless and a curse of a wanderin' soul
Ooh-ooh-oh, ooooh

I found a love that was one of a kind
She gave me her heart and I wasted her time
Oh, Heaven knows that I wanted to stay
But everyone I love, I just push away

I, I'll be gone with the wind always runnin' and chasin' the night
I, yeah, I'll roll like a stone all the long livin' days of my life

Heart born to run I can't help who I am
The people I meet and the places I've been
Don't know my name and won't see me again

Ooh, I'm a highway man

I, I'll be gone with the wind always runnin' and chasin' the night
I, yeah, I'll roll like a stone all the long livin' days of my life

Ooh-ooh-oh, ooooh
Ooh-ooh-oh
Yeah, I'll roll like a stone all the long livin' days of my life
