

Logan Michael, Lonely Like I Am

You said you'd hold on and you would never let go
But when things got hard, you went and hit the road
How could a girl so pretty, be so damn cold?
I guess, the jokes on me, but it's gettin' old
So baby, I just hope

I hope your new boyfriend goes and breaks your heart
I hope you text and drive then crash your car
I hope nothin' goes the way you want it to
I hope a hole gets punched in your great big plan
You get an STD from a one night stand
I hope you lose your job and all of your best friends
But most of all I hope you end up lonely like I am

Well, no hard for feelin's, baby, it's for the best
Well, that's a god-damn lie, like everythin' you ever said
So tell me, why you're still in my head
While someone else is layin' in your bed
Damn

I hope your new boyfriend goes and breaks your heart
I hope you text and drive then crash your car
I hope nothin' goes the way you want it to
I hope a hole gets punched in your great big plan
You get an STD from a one night stand
I hope you lose your job and all of your best friends
But most of all I hope you end up lonely like I am

Lonely, lonely like I am
Lonely, lonely

Well, I can say I'm sorry for the thing's that I'm sayin' but I'd rather just say 'em again
You left me heartbroken and, baby, I'm hopin' you're miserable in the end

I hope your new boyfriend goes and breaks your heart
I hope you text and drive then crash your car
I hope nothin' goes the way you want it to
I hope a hole gets punched in your great big plan
You get an STD from a one night stand
I hope you lose your job and all of your best friends
But most of all I hope you end up lonely like I am

Lonely, lonely like I am
Lonely, lonely

I hope you end up lonely like I am
