London Grammar, America

And i hope that you find it All thet you need I hope that you stay young And wild and free You'll have America

And i hope that you're better Than all of your friends I hope that they hold you Until the end You can have America

But all of our time chasing America But she never had a hope for me All of our time chasing a dresam A dream that meant notjing to me

I see where i found you Where they all lay All of the greatest they are here to stay Here in America
