

LORDE, Leader of a New Regime

Wearing SPF3000 for the ultraviolet days
Made it to the Island on the last of the outbound planes
Got a trunkful of Simone and Celine
And of course, my magazines
I am gonna live out my days

Won't somebody, anybody be the leader of a new regime?
Free the keepers of the burnt out scene
Another day
Lust and paranoia reign supreme
We need the leader of a new regime
