

LORDE, Stoned At The Nail Salon

Got a wishbone drying on the windowsill in my kitchen
Just in case I wake up and realise I've chosen wrong
I love this life that I have
The vine hanging over the door
And the dog who comes when I call
But I wonder sometimes what I'm missing

My hot blood's been burning
For s omany summers now
It's time to cool it down
Wherever that leads

Cause all the beautiful girls
They will fade like the roses
And all the rimes thay will change
It'll all come around
I don't know
Maybe, i am just stoned at the nail salon
Maybe, i am just stoned at the nail salon again

Gota a momory of waiting in your bad wearing only my earrings
We'd go dancing all over the land mines under our town
But the Sun has to rise
When it does
We'll dive up the papers
2 formwr hell-raises
I am still crazy for you, babe

My hot blood's been burning
For s omany summers now
It's time to cool it down
Wherever that leads

Cause all the beautiful girls
They will fade like the roses
And all the rimes thay will change
It'll all come around
I don't know
Maybe, i am just stoned at the nail salon
Maybe, i am just stoned at the nail salon again

Make it good
Make it good
I'd ride and 'd ride on teh carousel round and round
Forever it i could
But it's time to cool it down
Wherever that means

Spend all the evenings ypu can with the people who raised you
Cause all the Times they will change lit 'll all come atround
I don't know
Maybe, i am just stoned at the nail salon
Maybe, i am just stoned at the nail salon again
