

Lords of Black, Let the Nightmare Come

Whenever I try to reach my own shadows
It kills me to feel so lost
And when I try to remember who I was back then
I can't even tell my name

No place, no time, no one I can trust
Too far, too late to find a light in the black
It makes me feel like It's all wasted
Too tired, too ripped to even cry

We turn the page, so we can say we don't care
The fear, the pride... The useless trying
I know, you know... It's all pretending
Is this the fate that we all chase?

Who's gonna be there?
Who's gonna stand the ground
Tell me you won't back down... tell me you won't

Live up on memories
Of Heroes who walked alone
Everything's down to you

Chorus
Let the nightmare come... Darkness overcame
Let the nightmare come... Ready to reborn

No rest in sight, forever wounded
No flesh is left for any more scars
The fear, the dark, the nevermore
So real, so near, it never ends

Outside, the world it seems to be not my kind
Inside my mind nothing but old lies
The ones they tell me to keep saying
Embrace the time before the fall

Who's gonna be there?
Who's gonna stand the ground
Tell me you won't back down... tell me you won't

Live up on memories
Of Heroes who walked alone
Everything's down to you
