

Lost Frequencies, The Feeling

We're dancing baby under open skies
My heart is crazy it tells me you're the one
I should run
And the feeling goes on

Yeah we fly into the night and fight the break of dawn
We're sippin on the highs tomorrow we are gone
I should run
And the feeling goes on

And the feeling goes on and on and on
And the feeling goes on and on and on
Come away tonight
Only you and I
And the feeling goes on and on

I hold on, should let go
Lost all my control
Drunk kissing, drunk feelings
I hate that we're leaving
The way my hearts beating
I'm locked in this freedom

Yeah we fly into the night and fight the break of dawn
We're sippin on the highs tomorrow we are gone
I should run
And the feeling goes on

And the feeling goes on and on and on
And the feeling goes on and on and on
Come away tonight
Only you and I
And the feeling goes on and on
