

Loveable Rogues, What A Night

You made the mistake
Of letting me and my mates
In your house, you don't know us at all
And I can't be held responsible
For getting naked in your swimming pool
What a night, you're alright
And you're quite a sight for my sore eyes
Thing is you don't even realize
Your house is a joke, I'm that kind of bloke
I find that some slippers fit nicely
I think your parents might like me
The fact is I'm off to the party.

We drink, we party, make love, make money
I take off in all the weekends I went to the?
We gonna drink and party, make love, make money
Doing things I'll forget but I'll never regret

I want a night like that
I want a night
I want a night
I want a night
I want a night.

She seems so pleasant but now she's screwing
Pacing round the house asking 'what you doing?'
Bottle everywhere and the carpet's ruined
Bedroom's fully booked, ripped sheets are brewing.
Kitchen smell's super bad, laugh but glove it
What sick pup put poo in the oven?
Alright darling, no need to shout
We've all stayed our welcome, I'll let myself out
I think your parents might hate me
It's a good job that I know karate.

We drink, we party, make love, make money
I take off in all the weekends I went to the?
We gonna drink and party, make love, make money
Doing things I'll forget but I'll never regret

I want a night like that
I want a night
I want a night
I want a night
I want a night.

I have to own up, I let everybody down
I am the sick pup, I pooped in the oven now
It might not seem that funny to you
But there's nothing more funny than poo
Where's everyone going?

We drink, we party, make love, make money
I take off in all the weekends I went to the?
We gonna drink and party, make love, make money
Doing things I'll forget but I'll never regret

I want a night like that
I want a night
I want a night
I want a night.
I want a night
