

Lucy Carr, This Is Goodbye

This is goodbye
and I know that this is goodbye lovers come and lovers go love is lost before you know don't think of me alone tonight on my own gonna be alright don't stay up late wondering what has gone or could have been trying hard to forget the past I always knew that it wouldnt last

And i know that this is goodbye
And i know that this is goodbye

you know you made a big mistake when you though my heart would break you wanna know there's someone new hey im sorry to disappoint you sometimes love is meant to be not this time for you and me don't stay up last wondering what has gone or could of been harsh words can push you aside but you won't make me cry truth hurts baby that's no lie

goodbye

And I know that this is goodbye (goodbye)
And I know that this is goodbye (goodbye)
And I know that this is goodbye (goodbye)
And I know that this is goodbye (goodbye)
