

Lucy Spraggan, Mountains

Sitting in the station
Contemplating looks on peoples faces
Wondering why they're smiling
Or what troubles they are facing

I don't know why I'm thinking it
But i just take the time and sit
And wonder what their dream is
And how they're trying to face it

When an old lady comes and sits next to me
And says next birthday I'll be 83
Fell in love with the world when I was 24
I've been to Mexico, Columbia and Equador
Sat next to the Taj Mahal
While the sun was rising
Spent a year in Australia
Chasing the horizons
So take your guitar and do what you have to do

She said 'I know what you're scared of
I used to feel it too
You're not scared of climbing mountains
You're scared that you can't make them move
Oh oh oh
I'll move them for you
I'll move them for you
I'll move them for you

When the most important piece of information
You have ever heard
Is that soon you'll be sitting
On top of the world

I'll move it for you
I'll move it for you
I'll Move it for you
