

Luke Hemmings, Close My Eyes

Don't be sad
In the middle
Whole life
With no time to mourn
Watch it die
In the mirror
Don't cry
It won't be long

Feel as your eyes get heavy
From looking at what you want
Need something to break the levy
The overflow in my heart

Now I don't want to close my eyes
See everything I've ever done
I never got to say goodbye
I won't look back until it's gone
Everything that I try to bury
And all the little deaths that set me off
I, can't close my eyes

Romanticize
A dark city
You can't find
The light in the sun
If i don't feel the same
Please forgive me
You have arrived
With no time to run
Quiet
Desperate all the people
Hiding in your garden
Crying, where is the time I lost?

Quiet
Desperate all the people
Hiding in your garden
Crying, where is the time I lost
