Luna Halo, Hang On To You

And I'll hang on to you
'Cause you're stronger
And you keep me from falling
And you brighten the world
With your beauty keep me closer
I'm calling

Looking out like a little child Holding tight when it all gets wild

And I'll hang on to you Nothing in this world will see me through Only You And I'll hang on to you Every day I live I give to you

And your love it is true
I feel stronger
And I'm happy to know you
'Cause you shine like the sun
And you're brighter
Than the darkness that's falling

Nothing in this world Could ever take your place Happiness is found In Your warm embrace How I love your face

And I'll hang on to you 'Cause you're stronger And you keep me from falling

And I'll hang on to you Every day I live I give to you yeah... And I'll hang on to you

When the darkest days are falling Keep me closer I am calling
