

Luna Halo, Way To Your Heart

I don't know if I have to shake you just to wake you
From this dream, that it seems you're living
And I don't know, if I could ever push you hard enough to move you, from the place your head is

You're living a lie
And I think it's time
That you realize

If your head is the way to your heart
Then I don't even know where to start
'Til you get up and walk out on faith
You will lie in the bed that you've made
But it doesn't have to be that way

If I could, I would summon up the past in me
So you could see the change before your eyes
And if I could, I would breathe the breath of life
Into your fading soul that's lost the will to fight

You're living a lie
And I think it's time
That you realize

If your head is the way to your heart
Then I don't even know where to start
'Til you get up and walk out on faith
You will lie in the bed that you've made
But it doesn't have to be that way

And I know you can't go on Fooling yourself, pretending nothing's wrong
When you reach the end
Of your road, where will you go?

If your head is the way to your heart
Then I don't even know where to start
'Til you get up and walk out on faith
You will lie in the bed that you've made
But it doesn't have to be that way

But it doesn't have to be that way
