

Lunatic Soul, Anymore (from Fractured)

I want to tell about something you don't talk to me anymore I want to share with my animal's desire
you don't talk to me anymore

I need to show you what I'm lie what I'm achieved when I'm understood than you might tell me, that you're proud of me but you don't talk with me anymore

I want to show you my words on paper but you don't talk to me anymore just want to say, that I'm sorry but you don't talk to me anymore

I need to show you what I'm lie
what I'm achieved when I'm understood
than you might tell me, that you're proud of me

but you don't talk with me anymore

*"The lyrics are inspired by the tragic death of my father", Mariusz Duda.
