

Lunik, Melody

raindrops are drumming in my head and I don't wanna leave my bed humming my melody will I ever feel the same way I did then?

laughing madly into the sun stroking skin from dusk till dawn
see the sunset on the sea
like a simple melody
I'd stay there forever
I'd never come back but when you turned to stone I was once again alone today I stay in bed all day long humming our song

I got no money for food put aside you know it was a long night it was a long night and I'm just humming our sweet sweet melody

the summer had just begun but then you turned to stone maybe I should have known today I stay in bed
