

Lykke Li, deep end

Wait up
don't wanna wait up for you, baby still I wait up
lonely in the canyon
No love
there's no love reflecting in the glow of million dollar man

show me your cut
baby, come clean
come out of your smokescreen
if you really love me
open my eyes
bae, you burned me
your kiss is salty chlorine

swimming pool /4x
indigo, deep blue, deep blue Oh, baby, I know where you've been I know where you've been in the deep end!
swimming pool /4x
indigo, deep blue, deep blue
Oh, baby, I know where you've been
I know where you've been
in the deep end!

hold on, don't wanna hold on if you let go I can't go on it takes two to dance

baby, come clean
open my eyes
bae, you burned me

swimming pool /4x
indigo, deep blue, deep blue
Oh, baby, I know where you've been
I know where you've been
in the deep end!
swimming pool /4x
indigo, deep blue, deep blue
Oh, baby, I know where you've been
I know where you've been
in the deep end!

I'm in it /2x
I was only gonna touch ya
now I'm in it I'm in it swimming in it I wasn't gonna love you now I'm so fucking deep in it I think I feel another wave' I'm driving in /2x
anyway
I'm in it /2x
I was only gonna touch ya

swimming pool /4x
I know where you've been
in the deep end!
in the deep end!
