

Maanam, Don't Lean Out

I don't want to be intellectual
I don't want to be individual
I don't need your attention
You don't care about love anymore

Dont lean out!
You know that's dangerous!
If you want to stay alive
Don't lean out!

I don't want to be extrovert
That's only being egoistical
I don't need the mountains or trees
The rivers are out of bounds

Everything must be flat
Everything must be smooth
Just like a table
A table is your ideal

Dont lean out!
You know that's dangerous!
If you want to stay alive
Don't lean out!

You don't need my love
You don't need my desire
You are clean and practical
Just like a table

Everything must be flat
Everything must be smooth
Just like a table
A table is your ideal

Dont lean out!
You know that's dangerous!
If you want to stay alive
Don't lean out!
