

MACKLEMORE, IT'S CHRISTMAS TIME (FEAT.

oh I wish it was 99' when I was a kid at Christmas time couldn't go to bed that night Santa Close sliding, snow in the driveway under the lit up Christmas Tree whit my crazy ass family singing ooh oh oh wish I was a kid at Christmas again fill up the gas in the SUV spent way too much time tryna pick up our tree the ceiling ain't as tall as we thought, I see gotta cut a couple inches off the top to proceed and now we stringing the lights up listening to Bing Crosby by the fire Frank Sinatra, Nat King Cole, Mariah turn off that Michael Bubble turn on that one movie about the kid who licked the telephone pole on the blue ray Red Ryder BB-gun, staying up all night Jimmy Stewart

it's A Wonderful Life, now am I right? the collar's puffy the beard os long the belly's tubby but the reindeer are strong it's Santa Claus

I wrap presents like a kid wearng mittens Blindfolded, whit a pair of left-handed scissors Janky but the gift inside ridiculous better than whatever ot is you had on wishlist dig n a whip up the Bisquick got outside, ant throw 'round the pigskin I am a dad now, but still feel like a big kid best time of the year, can I get an a amen? the almond roca, the hottest cocoa the track around the tree whit the locomotive I wanted a Jordan poster to measure my growth spurt starter logo, Georgetown Hoyas I am going off the head, y'all homemade cookies that I dip in the eggnog I wanna take a second and shout out my dead dog
