

Macy Gray, Oblivion

it's real sick
the state of the world today it's real thick
to come up and find a way solution
the next time you're alone you can create a world of your own make it magic
give it love
make it all you're dreaming of everybody
in my underwear
sometimes I visit there
oblivion
ignorance is bliss
don't know nothing but this
oblivion
forget
here with the broken hearted let's get this party started lalalalalala
I eat my marimbas
oblivion
I tingle when I sing
bling bling bling ting ting
oblivion
here with the broken hearted
let's get this party started
it's tempting to pack up your throne move in make this magic place your home but nobody else can go you'll be forever all alone
no longer broken hearted and I don't know when it started

oblivion
