Made Of Hate, Hidden

I am escaping from the source of my desire Trying to tool my heart and mind It's my nature it will chase me my whole life Until I accept it or die I am one, made by two Different worlds and different muses Hidden nature comes out when Dreams come true! The darkest side of me which you can't see but only feel Won't let my mind set me free! It's like my shadow. always with me hidden in the dark My nature and myself is one
