

Made Of Hate, My, Myself

Being tired of this slow starvation
I braced myself and start preparation Reaching turning point of my life
I grew up to finally act Now the time has come to finally act I'm ready to take this step into the future cut off from the past I'm ready to stood out proud and I'm leaving once and for all I'm on my way to reach the end to find the peace of mind to be myself
I'm not afraid to look ahead
I break the seal and open final gate
