

Madison Beer, Home To Another One

I know what I should say
"I don't think of you," but I do
Oh, I do, I do
Black car on the highway
Could've sworn I saw your face
Was it you? Was it you?

I still hear you

Call me, "Baby"
I know you go home to another one
Say you hate me
It's okay, boy, you're not the only one
Another year, we're still here
Call me, "Baby"
I know you go home to another one

Do you talk about me?
Like I still belong to you
Do you? Do you?
Now you hold her gently
Don't you wish you saw us through?
'Cause I do, I do

I still hear you

Call me, "Baby"
I know you go home to another one
Say you hate me
It's okay, boy, you're not the only one
Another year, we're still here
Call me, "Baby"
I know you go home to another one

I know you go home to another one
Another year, we're still here
Call me, "Baby"
I know you go home to another one
