

Madness, Wonderful

These are the days I love,
And I'll be happier than most
Crossing England coast to coast,
Through your town,
And as I cross the land
And I cry a salty tear,
For those who are not here
On this day

You're wonderful
So wonderful,
It's good to see you
You're wonderful
So wonderful,
It's great to be here.

And as I think back when
Life was uncomplicated then
We had some things we hated
But more that we loved
And we took care to wear
What nobody else would wear
Cos we didn't really care
In those days

You're wonderful
So wonderful,
It's good to see you
You're wonderful
So wonderful,
It's great to be here.
