Madonna, Gambler

Gambler, gambler

[Chorus:]

I'm a gambler, and I will take you by surprise Gambler, I'll aim this straight between your eyes Gambler, yeah I know all the words to say 'Cause I'm a gambler, I only play the game my way, yeah

Don't want to say this but I think that I should I'm better off forgotten if you think that I'd be good One day you see me the next day I'm gone Don't fight me baby I don't want to hold on I'm a gambler, a gambler

You're not happy with the way I act You better turn around boy, don't look back You're getting angry, you know I can see You're just jealous 'cause you can't be me

[chorus]

[Intermediate:]

You can't stop me now 'Cause I'm right and I'm making advances Let me show you how Tonight, I'll be taking my chances On you, on you, on you, on you, that's right baby

I'm a gambler, gambler You understand what I'm talking about?

[chorus] [intermediate]

I'm a gambler, a gambler Gambler, 'cause I'm a gambler

You can't stop me now I'm on the road baby I know how You can't stop me now Oh no

You can't stop me now [repeat 3 times]

'Cause I'm a gambler, yeah I'm a gambler That's right baby
