

Madonna, Shame

Why do you want to waste your life away?
It's a shame
It's a shame
It's a shame

Anyone can learn to fly
When you're beat up from your problems
They're not in sight
there's nothing to hide
You have got to stay

Being in touch with your sexuality
Is such a good thing
And not to be ashamed of
That you can have fun
And that's it
Haven't you?

Just like everybody out there
It is important, that is for you
Everyone's sexuality is a part of their life
You can't deny it
Some people are in touch with it
Some people aren't
Some people are afraid of it
Some people aren't
But

It's a shame
The way you live your life
Is a shame
And you got no one to blame

It's what makes everybody who they are
What attracts you
If you're attracted to it
What creates life, so
How to learn from it
I like it to educate me
That you can't go for a walk, in peaceful
With privacy, public places
It's hard to watch people when you're famous
And I like watching people
I like to go to public places, to watch people
And you can't do that so much
When everyone watches you

It's a shame
The way you live your life
Is a shame
And you got no one to blame

Formality
Dirty
Boring
Sexy
Important
Slept with my girlfriend

It's a shame
The way you live your life
Is a shame
