

Magda Mielcarz, Stormy Wave

My lover, time will be over tomorrow
My mind it's better and longing for yours
The pulse of night is beating with your blood
I want you wake out of my door tomorrow
But tonight

Keep talking softly to me
Keep holding me tenderly
You lost like a stormy wave
You hits like a hurricane

My lover, time is made to be short
With every minute I'm feeling an ...
You know I could never be yours

I won't be crying with tears for you tomorrow
But tonight

Keep talking softly to me
Keep holding me tenderly
You're lost like a stormy wave
