

Magdalena Tul, Closer (feat. Chesney Snow)

closer and closer to you all the time closer and closer through we're still so far we're still so far

even when you doubt the daylight receding the sorrow take a look around with sunrise your star will still shine tomorrow we're like satellites launched alone in spite of our human nature yearn for closeness

looking in the dark
like moths seeking light

is there someone
I hear no one
can you hear me
I'm looking I'm searching for love

the light ray that standing beside you tonight
come with me

closer and closer
though we're still so far /3x
and if no one believed in us I stand behind you all the time /2x

fill the void of life
a series of nonsense and trivia clock's ticking time makes attention please don't miss what fate wants to give you everything you need all you want indeed

it's all right next to you so don't worry babe instinctively sense I'm feeling it too

/2x

[Chesney Snow:]
we can capture the magic that's in the air
Yes, girl
I need more than your derriere move your naughty body close to me and put your tongue on my gun to control the beast

heat
a million and 1 degrees till you coming from the middle of your centerpiece please DJ
just play it loud
keep the bodies in the party here overcrowded light
